BRIEF INTRODUCTION

Since long before the dawn of Independence the erudite people among the depressed, persecuted and toiling masses of Tehatta and her adjacent villages have earnestly tried to eradicate the cause of illiteracy from the locality and to enlighten them with the blessing of higher education. The initial steps, now recognized as prime, were the foundation of Tehatta Sailendra Smriti Sangha, a village Library, a small Hospital, a Post Office and of course Tehatta Free Primary School and Tehatta High School. The latest and glorious inclusion in the list was Tehatta Sadananda Mahavidyalaya, a coeducational Govt. aided Degree College, affiliated to University of Burdwan.

Tehatta Sadananda Mahavidyalaya is the only Degree College in the Kalna Block II founded in 2013. The college has already earned name in the locality for the quality of teaching and enviable success rate. A good number of our ex-students have been placed in different Government and Private sectors.

Tehatta Sadananda Mahavidyalaya is a West Bengal State Government Aided College, Department of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal has sanctioned grants for the construction of the College Buildings.
